Students who are not on track to meet graduation requirements should schedule a meeting with their counselor to discuss the plan that is most appropriate for them. All credit recovery must be approved by the principal and/or counselor. Below are some options to consider.

Michigan Virtual High School

- Online format with access to instructor via email
- Can access course from any location that has Internet accessibility
- Courses are Michigan Merit Curriculum compliant
- While grant funds are available, the student fee is $150 per course
- $75 refund will be issued upon successful completion of course
- Trimester or flex courses available
- Registration deadlines align with trimesters/semesters
- ½ credit may be earned per course
- See your counselor to enroll

Odyssey High School Afternoon Program

- Online format without direct instructor access
- Course must be completed onsite at OHS Monday through Friday 3:30 – 8:30 p.m.
- Courses are Michigan Merit Curriculum compliant
- Various PLATO core and elective courses are available
- While grant funds are available, the student fee is $100 per course
- $50 refund will be issued upon successful completion of course
- Limited enrollment
- See your counselor for more information

American School

- Independent study correspondence courses
- $110 - $250 per credit, $20 additional enrollment fees
- ½ credit or 1 credit options
- Students required to follow the Michigan Merit Curriculum may not be eligible for this option
- Application available in guidance office
- Complete student portion of application
- Submit completed application with payment to counselor

- Counselor will complete portion of application and mail application
- Flexible starting date for course; however, courses must be completed within 1 year and by May 1 of the student's senior year.
- Up to 2 recovery credits may be earned through American School

5th Year Senior

Students who need to recover more credit than is feasible to recover during the traditional 4 years of high school may consider enrolling for a 5th year at Shepherd High School. Discuss this option with your counselor.
